The KHS BPA and Speech/Debate teams are requesting permission to travel out of state to their national competitions. Both teams are also asking for financial support to assist team members with transportation costs. This year the board has provided financial support of $100 per person up to $2,000 for those that have requested financial support for travel.

Recommendation: The administration recommends that the Kimbelry School Board of Trustees allow KHS BPA and Speech/Debate to travel to their respective national competitions and provide $100 per person up to $2,000 per team to assist with travel expenses.
