

Staff Survey

■ A split hybrid in which half of the students are face to face, face coverings, two days a week with a remote day on Friday. There will not be an expectation to provide typical remote instruction for those students at home as teachers will be instructing f

■ Green, all kids face to face with face coverings.

■ Our current yellow, most instruction is remote with small groups of students coming into the building.

■ Red, all students and staff remote.