

Things they never teach first year principals!

You have to remind a few children that they should always wear underwear.

It's hard to find clothes that fit all our body shapes, and this applies to even the youngest of our population.

Nice grass stains!!

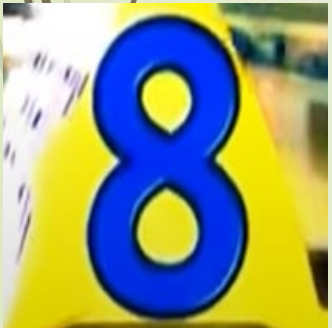

Dress shoes have zero traction!

No matter how safe the playground equipment seems, kids still get stuck!

The buddy bench is a hot spot too!

A child's perspective is rarely predictable!

Bussing

Who's in charge of this school?

Kindergarten students do not remove their masks when they throw-up!

On a side note—our school nurses are incredible!

Charlotte Danielson means business!

Evaluations are due when???

They never teach you how much you worry about staff...

It's been a serious year.

Stricker support staff keep the school functioning

Volunteerism runs high at SES!

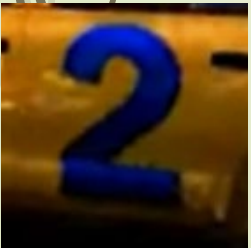

Great attitudes too!

Stricker Teachers will always maintain a positive class environment...

Double whammy: Pandemic and new principal

Always take the extra time for a laugh
